

Nevada Walkin' Song

Capo to Key of A

G C
1) Sun's coming over the mountain, but the moons still hangin' in the sky,
G
The dawn is breakin' and the world is awakening'
D
And my spirits are singing high.
C Bm
Because I'm a-walkin' cross the desert
G C
With my backpack on my back,
Em G
I'm a free man and I like it that way,
' D G
You know I must be on the right track.

Chorus:

C G
'Cause I'm a-makin' my own way, across Nevada's mighty land,
Em C D
I'm soaking up the grandeur while I'm spittin' out the sand
C Bm G C
Those wide open spaces and the lonely places, try to call me home,
G Em C
But home is everywhere that I've ever been,
D G
It's a feelin' all its own.

2) As the day wears on, the suns a blazin', and the heat just knocks me down,
But there's a desert breeze and a Joshua tree, and the shade soon brings me round.
And as I sit there, soak up the desert air, the peace begins to flow,
I'm a part of everything I see as through this world I go.

(Repeat Chorus)

3) Now the sun's sinking low with a rosy glow, and the quiet time is here,
The air is still as the distant hills, and the coyotes are singin' clear.
I'm a-walkin' cross the desert, free as a man these days can be,
Singin' the sun down I'm outward bound
And I'm livin' sweet harmony.

(Final Chorus)
