

Range of Light

Capo to Key of A

G Em G D
1) Flowers blooming, mountains looming, towering over the land,
G Em C D
Alpine glow, lights the snow, while holding heavens hand,
C D C D
There's power in these places, it's simple as a child,
G Bm G Em C D
John Muir he knew the key to all, was to keep it free and wild.

C D Em
Refrain: Yes, the fire of ol' Man Muir
C D G
Is still a-shining bright,
C Bm G Em C D G
Up in the High Sierra, out in the Range of Light.

G Em G D
2) Water calling, water falling, to a chorus all its own,
G Em C D
Fans of spray, leap and play, while tearing down the stone,
C D C D
There's music in that river, it sweeps you with its song
G Bm G Em C D
You've known it all your lifetime, and now its time to sing along.

(Repeat Refrain)

3) Mirrors of time, reflections shine, double up the day,
There's a new view, shining through you, lighting up the way,
Somewhere in the depths, of that crystal mountain lake,
Is the thought to keep it as it is, just for its own sake.

C D G
Bridge: This world keeps right on turning
C D Em
But his words keep right on burning
C Bm C D
All inspired by the sights, here in the Range of Light

(Final Refrain)
